

8330 Lakewood Ranch Boulevard, Lakewood Ranch, FL 34211

LWRMC.com

ABOUT US:

Lakewood Ranch Medical Center is an acute care hospital that opened its doors in 2004. It is accredited by The Joint Commission and serves patients in Lakewood Ranch and surrounding communities. There are more than 750 physicians and clinicians who provide comprehensive medical and healthcare services. It has earned Primary Stroke designation, is accredited as a Chest Pain Center, and holds other prestigious quality awards including Certifications in Advanced Primary Heart Attack Center, Total Hip and Total Knee Replacement and Sepsis Certification from The Joint Commission.

HOSPITAL LEADERSHIP:

Andy Guz, Chief Executive Officer

Philip Reber, Chief Operating Officer

Judy Young, Chief Nursing Officer

Renee Shopoff, Chief Financial Officer

NEW PATIENT BED TOWER STATS:

- 170,000 sq. feet
- $120 million investment
- Five-story patient bed tower
- Phase I – Adds 60 beds and shell space for another 60 beds in the future (Phase II)
- Allow for expansion of Laboratory, Pharmacy, Pre-admission testing and Food and Nutrition Services Departments
- When both phases are completed, tower will double patient bed capacity from 120 to 240 beds
- Will add approximately 100 new jobs
- Completion in December 2025

ARCHITECTURAL RENDERINGS – visit <https://spaces.hightail.com/space/SwqwobnAju>